Principal's Pen

I feel it highly excited to bring forth the third issue of Newsletter of our college 'Reflet', especially in the circumstances of myself assuming charge as the head of this institution.

The creditable grade we achieved recently from NAAC; I wish should be viewed as an opportunity to pinpoint priorities and target more endeavors to realize a much better tomorrow.

A harmonious balance between learning environs and extra-curricular activities are the key to truly effective meaningful higher education. As we know, perpetuation of success is rather difficult than attaining it.

This sincere attempt to publish periodical handouts has to meet the purpose of reviewing the past, relishing them and exploiting them for rectifying the errors, because, only humans make errors and he is the only creation of God having the ability to learn from mistakes and correct them. Moreover, this is a medium for disseminating our efforts not only among ourselves but also amid our well-wishers.

Let this be a humble footnote and I proudly place before you the reflections of M.E.S. Marampally.

Dr. A. Biju
